

Book Coleman, Foster Dow and Irma Dow Scholarships

Scholarships are available to assist a graduating senior with cerebral palsy in his or her academic efforts to pursue further education or training at a recognized educational or training institution. The Book-Coleman Scholarship was initiated in 1994 with the resources of two memorial funds established in memory of William H. Book and Julian D. Coleman, both of Indianapolis. Mr. Book's mother, Margaret and Mr. Coleman were long-time members of the Board of Directors of UCPAGI. The Foster and Irma Dow Scholarships were established in 2006 with the proceeds of a donation from the estates of Foster and Irma Dow of Whitley County.

In keeping with the deep concern of each of these individuals for the future of people with cerebral palsy, these scholarships are awarded in recognition of the potential of all individuals with disabilities to achieve academically, become involved in their communities, and to serve as tomorrow's leaders.
